ENGLISH CLASS

vocabulary

ENGLISH CLASS

- Back up: The Applications usually have help to go back up between pages.

- Backup: The backups are important in any system

- Boot up : I have not boot up able to start the program

- Hook up: I Will hook up to the database

- Log in: The login credentials are required to log in.

- Power up: I power up my computer to start programming

- Printout: Check the printout for any errors.

- Pull down: the files that I need are pull down from the file server

- Pulldown: Use the pulldown menu to select an option.

- Scroll down: Scroll down to see the latest updates.

- Scroll up: Scroll up to review the previous messages.

- Set up: Set up the database before launching the software.

- Sig in: I haven't sign up in git hub

- Start up: Start up the development environment to write new code.

- Turn on: Turn on your laptop to start coding.

ENGLISH CLASS

- It is essential to backup regularly, as backups are essential in any system to prevent data loss. Before boot up the program, make sure that everything is correctly configured. When you need to connect your application to a database, you can hook up to the database securely. To access the system, login credentials are needed to log in. Every time I want to start programming, I power up my computer.